

RCPATH Book Club

Sign up for our free RCPATH Book Club event featuring 'Gulp: Travels Around the Gut' – Thursday 22 April

Join Mary Roach, author of Gulp, and an expert panel to explore the weird and wonderful world of our digestive system. You don't need to have read the book to join in with this event. Find out more and register for free at www.rcpath.org/event/gulp.html.

Enter our essay competition by Friday 11 June for a chance to win £200 and have your essay published

This year we're encouraging Foundation doctors to explore COVID-19 testing strategies. Find out more and enter at www.rcpath.org/essay-competitions.

Our annual Art of Pathology competition is now open

We're inviting entrants of all ages from the UK and abroad to interpret this year's theme, 'All Together Now', using any artistic medium of choice. The winner from each of the three age categories will receive £50 and have their artwork published online and in the Bulletin. For more information and inspiration, visit www.rcpath.org/artofpathology.

We're accepting applications for this year's public engagement grant scheme

Grants of up to £1,000 are available for individuals or organisations who wish to develop pathology-related public engagement activities or events. The public engagement team are happy to answer questions and provide advice to any prospective grant applicants so get in touch at publicengagement@rcpath.org if you would like to discuss your application. Online/virtual event ideas are welcomed. Find out more on our grants scheme page.
