

UK Foundation Programme (UKFP) 2021

Allocation Update – May 2021

Purpose

This document provides information about the allocation of applicants who were placed on the reserve list for the 2021 Foundation Programme following the primary list allocation.

All applicants on the reserve list will be allocated a foundation training place over the next two months. This document describes the process and outcome of the process so far.

Summary

The primary list allocation to foundation school results were released shortly after midnight on Thursday 11 March 2021. A total of 7081 foundation training places (AFP, FPP and FP) were filled and 494 applicants were placed on the reserve list.

Applicants on the primary list were allocated to foundation programmes on 8 April 2021. Some applicants have since withdrawn from the Foundation Programme. At the end of April 2021 there were 60 unfilled foundation training places across the programme and a total of 484 applicants remained on the reserve list. 140 additional training places were identified in May 2021, as well as further vacancies due to applicant withdrawals. The first group of applicants on the reserve list were allocated to foundation school on Thursday 20 May 2021.

A further process to allocate the remainder of applicants on the reserve list to foundation schools is planned for Thursday 10 June 2021.

A total of 219 reserve list applicants were allocated to foundation training places across the UK: 146 UK nominees and 73 Eligibility Office applicants. A total of 264 applicants remain on the reserve list: 154 UK nominees and 110 Eligibility Office applicants.

Reserve List First Batch Allocation – Thursday 20 May 2021

The first reserve list batch allocation results were released on Thursday 20 May 2021.

The table on the next page provides a breakdown of reserve list applicant allocations by foundation school. All available places were filled.

Reserve List Second Batch Allocation – Thursday 10 June 2021

The UKFPO continues to work closely with foundation schools to identify further suitable training places to allocate the remainder of applicants on the reserve list. All applicants will be allocated to a foundation school on 10 June 2021.
