

SusQI Showcase 2024

Sustainability in Quality Improvement (SusQI) can holistically improve healthcare, focusing on value, as well as quality.

This showcase shares experiences from those making real world change in sustainable healthcare delivery and education.

Hear their stories as they share the successes, challenges and future challenges.

Date: Wednesday 19th June

Time: 14.00 to 16.30

Location: Online FREE

Book your place here

Part 1. Embedding sustainability into organisational QI education and practice

14.00 - 14.50 | Keynote Speaker: Elaine Mead

Find out what SusQI is and explore strategies for integrating sustainable healthcare principles into existing organisational frameworks and aligning sustainability goals with objectives through talks by:

- Emma Rowan, Head of Service Improvement, South Warwickshire NHS FT
- Lucy Brown, Florence Nightingale Foundation/ Centre for Sustainable Healthcare
- Dr Sonia Chanchlani, University of Melbourne Medical School

Part 2. SusQI Leadership

14.55 - 15.40

Learn from clinical leaders about effective leadership strategies for driving sustainable practices and enhancing patient care outcomes. Hear testimonials of those leading change:

- Sustainability & Strategy Team, Sheffield Teaching Hospital NHS FT
- Hand Therapy Team, Northampton General Hospital NHS Trust
- Clinically led Sustainable Procurement, Sheffield Teaching Hospital NHS FT

Part 3. Patient & Public engagement in SusQI

15.45 - 16.30 | Public representative: Andrea Cantrill

Explore the importance of patient and public engagement in SusQI implementation and gain insights into how this can be done

- Holly Slyne, Patient engagement in Green Teams Competition
- Dr Katherine Brown, Cornwall Greener Practice
- TBC

